Happy Fall!

Now that the season has changed, we have many new great things to be excited for at Waltonwood Providence. Our menus have changed to feature more seasonal flavors such as pumpkin, cinnamon and sweet potatoes to be included in some of our culinary dishes. We have a wonderful fall themed calendar for our residents to enjoy and will be celebrating the month doing many wonderful fall activities. We will wrap up the end of this month celebrating Halloween all around the community. Looking forward to all of the changes that this season will bring!

Sincerely,

Jeff Plummer
